

CAMPARI GROUP

MATTEO FANTACCHIOTTI

Matteo Fantacchiotti has held leadership roles in the drinks industry for over 20 years working with global premium brands both in developed and emerging markets across Europe, Asia, North America, Latin America, and Africa. After his Business and Economics graduation in Italy, he started his career with a couple of years in the cosmetic industry.

He then spent the rest of his professional life in the beverage industry in Nestle' Waters, Diageo and Carlsberg Group in various managerial positions with growing responsibilities ranging from managing market operations, leading global sales and marketing operations, opening new business units and/or new markets and having regional P&L responsibilities in Asia.

He joined Campari Group as Managing Director Asia Pacific in January 2020, leading the develop of this strategic region.

Since April 2024, he is Chief Executive Officer of Campari Group.